

10.15 a.m. Sheryl's Shuttle Bus
Community Centre
Catch Sheryl's Shuttle Bus to the East Beach Surf Life Saving Club in time for the 11a.m. session on Australian Fiction. Return 12.30 Free

11.00 a.m. The Rush to the Café Latte Coast
Surf Lifesaving Club
Panel discussion on Current Directions in Australian Fiction. Chair: Robyn Gardner Panellists: Alan Attwood, Barry Dickins, Andrea Goldsmith E4 $10

11.00 a.m. Poetry at Sea
The Wharf King George Square
Under Captain Jane Grimshaw, 'S.S. Mulloka' will steam out to sea with Mary Bourke Betello Fiorini-Lowell reading sea poems. Mary has publicly read poetry in Venice, Rome, Florence, Jerusalem, Kenya and even in Koroit.
But never at sea from Port Fairy. Be enchanted by the voice that was once the stand in for Gina Lollobrigida. Bookings essential Ph: 0408 514 382 E5 $10

12.00 p.m. Why a Dragon?
Isobelle Carmody Seacombe House,
Rolf Boldrewood Room
Isobelle will talk about the role of fantasy. E6 $5

12.00 p.m. Barbara Cartland Hurl
Railway Place
How far can a book be hurled? $2

1 p.m.-3 p.m. Writers Workshop
Seacombe House,
Rolf Boldrewood Room
Hands on writers' workshop. Don Swanson will take aspiring writers through a series of activities to produce purple prose. Limited to 10. Tea and coffee provided.
Bookings essential 5568 2623 E7 $10

1.00 p.m. Five Bells
Uniting Church
Songs, poems and prose about the sea. Red Tent Singers, Dennis O'Keeffe & Ken Bradshaw E8 $10

SURF CAFÉ on SACKVILLE STREET:
The official café of the Book Fair. Bring along an author and you'll get a free cup of coffee. Or come along and meet an author and you might still get a free cup of coffee!

2.30 p.m. The Shadow
Caledonian Inn Dining Room
January Arnold will perform poems with a Gothic and Celtic flavour exploring the dark side of life. E9 $5

2.30 p.m. Girt by Sea?
Star of the West Hotel
Isobelle Carmody and Beverley Farmer.
Isobelle and Beverley discuss Australia's isolation as help or hindrance to Australian Writing. E10 $10

3 30 p.m. Under the Volcano
Victoria Hotel Café
Andrea Goldsmith discusses the tremors in her moral thriller 'The Prosperous Thief'. E11 $5

4.00 p.m. Sea Tales from the South West
Star of the West Hotel
Stan Evans, Garry Kerr and Marten Syme talk about the fishermen of Port Fairy, the boats that go to sea and the numerous arrivals and departures along the South West Coast. E12 $5

4.30 p.m. Book Launch
Ironbird Bookshop
Book launch of Anna Lanyon's newest publication 'The New World of Martin Cortes'. invitation 5568 2623/5568 1343

5.00 p.m. Seeing Things in Black & White
Whalebone Gallery
Barry Dickins discusses his book 'Black and Whitely' on controversial artist Brett Whitely E13 $5

7.00 -11.00 p.m. Ex-Libris Book Fair Dinner
Drill Hall, Victoria Hotel
Visiting Speaker Eva Hoffman, from U.S.A. & U.K. 'Homes and Homelands, Exiles and Nomads, Thinking about belonging in a Mobile Age.'
Introduced by Anna Lanyon
Gavin Franklin piano Alan Leishman saxophone
Hors d'oeuvres followed by a two course dinner.
Tables of ten. Drinks at bar prices. E14 $50
Bookings essential.

BOOK SALE:

To help you make the best purchases at the book sale, buy a cup of delicious Tutto Caffè coffee while you browse and enjoy the huge range of books for sale at the Community Centre in Bank Street.