

Time	Venue	Cost
The Biggest Book Group in Port Fairy
11.00 am	Surf Life Saving Club East Beach	$10

Amanda Lohrey will lead discussion on her latest novel The Philosopher's Doll.

Barbara Cartland Hurl
12.00 pm	Railway Place	$2

How far can a book be hurled?

Food for Eating and Reading
12.30 pm	Wisharts at the Wharf	$30

Buffet lunch at Wisharts at the Wharf.

Rita Erlich, doyen food writer and commentator, will talk about her food writing experiences.

Bookings essential ph 5568 1755
or Ironbird Bookshop ph 5568 2690

The Flavour of Words
2.00 pm - 4.00 pm	Seacombe House Rolf Boldrewood Room	$10

Writers Workshop Limit 15.

Don Swanson will show you how to make a literary delight of your dreams by using proven strategies to get the words on the page as well as to say what you mean and mean what you say.

Bookings Don Swanson ph 5563 3129 or ph 5561 3436

Roger Haldane
1.00 pm - 3.00 pm	Moyne Council Chambers	$2

Prize giving for bookmarks at 3.00 pm by Roger Haldane.

Roger Haldane, local artist and writer, will be working on drawings for his next book.

Time	Venue	Cost
From Heaven to Helsinki Memory, Place and Identity
3.00 pm	Caledonian Inn	$10

David McCooey, critic and poet, and Maria Takolander, essayist and fiction writer, from Deakin University, explore autobiographical writing across two cultures.

Fact and Fiction in Politics
3.30 pm - 4.30 pm	Star of the, West Hotel	$10

Can the two be separated?

State MP for Yan Yean, Danielle Green interviews Shane Maloney about his portrayal of Victorian politics through the eyes of his fictional character, Murray Whelan.

Wars Never End
5.00 pm	Whalebone Gallery	$10

Thirty years on, the effects of the Vietnam War are still potent in Australian lives.

Adib Khan, author of Homecoming, examines the continuing impact of the Vietnam War through his central character, Martin.

Lagoon and other Stories
5.00 pm	Wishart Gallery	FREE

Art and Text launch.

Words by Anna Lanyon. Etchings by Carmel Wallace.

Russian Soup
8.00 pm	Community Centre (Cinema)	$20

Chekhov, Gogol and Dostoevsky characters brought to life in a new and startling production. Ghostly dark comedy in the close proximity of love and violence. Laugh and gasp together.

Student/pensioner conc. $15